VINO DE JEREZ

We LOVE Sherry! However, we know in the UK it has this reputation that it's something your Gran drinks at Christmas, but, we're determined to change that, so, we've teamed up with Bodegas Barbadillo- a family owned Sherry producer established in 1821 and the World's Largest producer of Manzanilla Sherry- to create the following range of exciting AND accessible House Sherries! Additionally, we've also sourced a range of rare, vintage Sherries and other examples that are absolutely worth a moment if you're more of a seasoned Sherry pro, but, for formatting reasons you'll need to jump to page 10 to read all about them!
